2025 Sponsorship Opportunities: The Cultural Landscape Foundation Cultural Landscape Guide to African American Landscapes

Launched in 2024 this ever-expanding guide currently features more than 160 African American cultural landscapes throughout the nation spanning centuries of American history. The myriad sites are considered through nine separate themes, developed specifically for the guide or informed by codified National Park Service frameworks. By raising the visibility and value of often forgotten or purposefully erased African American landscapes the guide aims to provoke further discussion and research. About Us

The Cultural Landscape Foundation (TCLF) is a Washington, D.C.-based non-profit founded in 1998 to connect people to places. TCLF educates and engages the public to make our shared landscape heritage more visible, identify its value, and empower its stewards. Through its website, publishing, lectures, and other events, TCLF broadens support and understanding for cultural landscapes. TCLF is also home to the Cornelia Hahn Oberlander International Landscape Architecture Prize.
